Warren Mayor Jim Fouts Salutes 100-Year-Old Plus Residents Thursday, December 27

Warren, MI – Six Warren residents 100 years old plus will be honored by Warren Mayor Jim Fouts at noon in the Mayor’s conference room. The mayor will serve a complimentary lunch to the guests.

“The City of Warren honors these residents annually, not only because of their longevity but because of their service to their families and their community,” said Fouts.

The guests and their ages are:

Angeline Achille (103)

Margaret Jakob (101)

James Lassiter (104)

Claudia Miller (100)

Anne Walters (101)

Alice Weidenmuelle (101)
