For Rescuing Her Mother

Whereas: Savannah Lavelly was on a walk with her mom, Jessa, and their dog, Juno, when Jessa suddenly had a seizure. "Mommy fell," Savannah said, and;

Whereas: Savannah ran back to their house to get help from Jessa's parents who were visiting. She can be seen on home security video, running up to the house and trying to get in, and;

Whereas: "Savannah actually retracted her steps home rather than going the shorter way," Jessa Lavelly said. "I asked her did you look for cars and she said she did," and;

Whereas: "We're still a little bit shocked that she was able to find her way home," Jessa said. "We've never talked to her about it, and she doesn't go on a ton of walks, and;

Whereas: "And the fact that she could pick out our house, because they all look the same," and;

Whereas: "I rushed over to see if I could help and in the meantime several cars stopped to help," said Jonathan Johnson. "We went out there to try to render assistance, and;

Whereas: Meanwhile, Savannah got her grandparents and rushed back to her mom, and;

Whereas: Even the family dog is being called a hero. "She actually stood over me and wouldn't let anyone touch me until my dad got there," Jessa said. "Because she was just protecting me while I was unconscious."

Now, therefore, be it resolved that I, James R. Fouts, Mayor of the City of Warren, Michigan, on behalf of the people of the City of Warren, do hereby issue this mayoral proclamation honoring Savannah Lavelly for her strength and courage at the age of 3-years-old, to help save her Mom's life.
