Warren Mayor's Office Announces Collection For Puerto Rico Victims

Warren, MI – Warren Mayor Jim Fouts' Office is collecting clothing and food and water for the hurricane victims in Puerto Rico.

Fouts said non-perishable foods and water-filled bottles will be collected and forwarded to the Salvation Army. "Every item collected will be used to alleviate the suffering Puerto Rico residents are now experiencing and will be experiencing for a long time," said Fouts. "It's a human tragedy."
