Warren Mayor Jim Fouts
Gives State of the City Address
Thursday, March 22

Warren, MI – Warren Mayor Jim Fouts' eleventh State of the city address is Thursday, March 22 at 11:30 a.m. at Andiamo Italia Restaurante on 14 Mile west of Van Dyke.

Mayor Fouts will be making major announcements regarding a major lawsuit, property acquisition, and development of the new downtown estimated at a $125 million.

Fouts' address reviews his administration's accomplishments during 2017 and highlights a P.A.I.D. (People Against Illegal Drugs) initiative; major corporate expansions; new businesses and jobs; Neighborhood Watch Program; a new Police K-9 Unit; new detention basin; new LED street lighting; two new branch libraries; road improvements and Civic Center plans.

Fouts will also honor Warren Cousino Boys Soccer division Champs, Warren Woods Tower girls Volleyball Class A District Champions, and Warren De La Salle State Division 2 Champions.

He will also announce Warren has been named safest U.S. city from natural disasters, and a green space initiative.

Special Note: All proceeds for the 2018 State of the City (after expenses) goes to the Macomb Special Olympics.
