Statement of Warren Mayor Jim Fouts
On the Conversion of Jon-Jon's Topless Lounge
Into a Dairy Queen Grill and Chill

Warren, MI – “I am pleased by the conversion of the Jon-Jon's, the topless lounge, into a 4149 square foot Dairy Queen Grill and Chill at Martin Rd. and Mound. This is the result of the efforts of our city attorney's office, headed by Nathan Vinson, city attorney, and Mary Michaels, chief assistant city attorney, and outside counsel who represented the city in the lawsuit by Jon-Jon's in federal court.

“Now, instead of a sexually-oriented business, we now have a family-oriented business in the center of our city.

“The residents of the neighborhood next to the new business must be pleased by this new business that will include a drive-thru and outdoor seating. The city planning commission approved the site plan Monday, July 24 that will include adequate parking for customers and employees (43 spaces). Residents living on Martin Rd. to the west will not have to deal with overflow parking and traffic.

“This is truly a victory for Warren residents and an asset to our city. It eliminates a long-standing chronic eyesore and replaces it with a national iconic, well-known family business.”
