Warren Will Honor Caregivers

Warren, MI – Add residents who have or are caregivers to the list of residents honored by Warren Mayor Jim Fouts.

In past years, Fouts has honored veterans, All-A students, volunteers and 100-year-olds at special ceremonies at city hall.

“We want to recognize those volunteer caregivers for relatives, friends, or neighbors at a special ceremony,” said Fouts, who said caregivers are the “quiet unsung heroes who make life easier for those unable to care for themselves.”

- Caregiver must be a resident of Warren
- Caregivers must have cared for or is caring for a loved one (i.e. grandparent, parent, child, close friend, neighbor or relative, etc.)
- Cannot be employed by a caregiver business
- Can be self-nominated or nominated by someone
- Even if caregiving has ended, nominations can be made.

Nomination forms available by calling 586-574-4515 or e-mail: mayor@cityofwarren.org

No date has been set for the ceremony that will be scheduled in the fall.
