Volunteers From Warren Honored Thursday, April 21 at 8 p.m.

Warren, MI – Volunteers who reside in Warren will be honored at the city's 7th Annual Outstanding Volunteer Recognition Ceremony, tomorrow, Thursday, April 21 at the Warren City Hall Atrium at 8 p.m.

Volunteers from church, civic, charitable, and religious groups will be recognized. So far, over 108 have been nominated.

“These volunteers have earned this recognition for their time and effort they have contributed to our city,” said Warren Mayor Jim Fouts, who initiated the idea in 2010 during National Volunteer Month in April.

The public is invited. For further information, call the Mayor's Office at 586-574-4520.
