MEDIA ADVISORY

City of Warren to Host ADA Community Meetings

Residents invited to help shape the City's ADA Transition Plan for greater accessibility

(Warren, MI) - The City of Warren is rolling out Warren's revised Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) Transition Plan to improve accessibility to city buildings, parks, programs, and services for residents with disabilities. Community members will have the chance to learn about the plan and offer input before it is finalized. The plan is being developed in partnership with Hubbell, Roth & Clark (HRC). The task force will present Warren's proposed ADA Transition plan.

WHEN & WHERE:

- Friday, October 3, 2025 - 9:00 a.m.
Warren City Hall, One City Square, First-Floor Conference Room
- Monday, October 20, 2025 - 6:00 p.m.
Maybelle Burnette Branch Library, 23345 Van Dyke Ave., Community Room

WHO:

Open to all residents, caregivers, service providers, and disability advocates.

ACCESSIBILITY:

Meetings are free and open to the public. If residents have any questions, concerns, or require disability-related accommodations for the meeting, please contact Caitlin Murphy by phone at 586 574-4671, or by email at cmurphy@cityofwarren.org. A virtual participation link will be available on the City's website before the meeting begins.

WHY:

Community input is essential to creating a plan that ensures equal access for people with disabilities. Together, we can make Warren a more accessible place to live, work, play and grow.
