c) Crime Victim Rights Act. Rates for vehicles towed from victims of crimes defined pursuant to the Crime Victim's Rights Act, Act 87 of 1985, MCL 780.751 et seq. as amended shall include:

i. Towing fee shall be fifty dollars ($50.00) and may be waived/paid by the city, if approved by council. In the event the towing fee exceeds the standard fees normally assessed for a routine tow, the police commissioner is authorized to grant additional fees upon submission of proof by the wrecker owner and determination by the police commissioner that a deviation from the fifty dollars ($50.00) fee is warranted.

ii. No fee shall be generated for storage of the vehicle during the period where there is a police hold in effect.

iii. If the owner or secured party fails to pick up the vehicle within seventy-two (72) hours after removal from the police hold, the storage rates listed in section (2) may start accruing after the seventy-two (72) hour period has elapsed. This subsection supersedes any other fees set forth in this section.
